

Creative Writing Writer's Notebook Entry #6

Choose three topics from the list of 20 below that you are interested in writing about. Write about one at a time, but include all three in the same entry, marking the topic chosen by starting with the coordinating number in your response. In order to get full credit for your response, you must have at least 30 sentences total.

1. What would you do if someone gave you $1,000,000?
2. Write about your favorite childhood toy.
3. Write about your most vivid nightmare or dream.
4. If and when I raise children, I'll never...because....
5. Write about a day you'd like to forget.
6. Write about a character from a book, television show, or movie that you would most like to meet. Why?
7. What would you do if you woke up one morning to find yourself invisible?
8. What would you do if you were able to talk to animals?
9. What would you do if you were able to travel into the past?
10. Describe the perfect day. Put in as many details as you can. Make it a possible day, not a "dream" day.
11. If you could meet up with anyone from past, present, or future who would you choose? Why? What would you ask them?
12. What do you consider to be your greatest accomplishment thus far in life and why?
13. If you could travel anywhere in the world, where would you go? Why?
14. Write about something that you desperately wanted when you were younger.
15. Write about a time when you were ever accused of something that you didn't do. Explain.
16. If you could only speak 20 words for the rest of your life, what 20 would you choose? Why?
17. Describe in detail a happy memory of your family.
18. If you could be a character in any book, television show, or movie, who would you be? Why?
19. Write about something ugly- war, fear, hate, cruelty,- but find the beauty (silver lining) in it.
20. Write about a law that you would create if given the chance, and explain why you feel the need for it.
